

Dividend and Income Fund Announces Intention To Voluntarily Delist Common Shares Of Beneficial Interest From The NYSE

NEW YORK, NY - September 18, 2020 - Dividend and Income Fund (NYSE: DNI) (NASDAQ: XDNIX) (the "Fund") today announced that it has submitted written notice to the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") of its intention to voluntarily delist its common shares of beneficial interest ("Shares") from the NYSE. In order to complete the voluntary delisting of its Shares from the NYSE, the Fund intends to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") on or about September 28, 2020 a Form 25, which filing will become effective 10 days after the filing date.

Following the effectiveness of the Form 25 filing, the Fund anticipates that its Shares will be quoted over-the-counter through the OTC Bulletin Board ("OTCBB"), OTC Markets Group ("OTC Markets"), or otherwise to the extent market makers commit to make a market in the Shares, although the Fund has not arranged for quotation of its Shares on any other exchange or quotation medium and can provide no assurance that trading in the Shares will continue. The OTCBB and OTC Markets are electronic networks through which participating broker-dealers can make markets and enter orders to buy and sell shares of issuers. As a result of delisting, the Fund will acquire a new trading symbol which, the Fund understands, will be generated by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority as part of transitioning to the over-the-counter market. The Fund intends to notify shareholders through a press release or other public announcement of its new trading symbol.

The Board of Trustees (the "Board") of the Fund, with the recommendation of the Governance Committee of the Board, unanimously approved the delisting for reasons based on many factors. These factors include, but are not limited to: the expenses, both direct and indirect, associated with being listed on the NYSE; the extent to which the Fund has taken advantage of its NYSE listing, including raising capital; trading, liquidity, spreads, and discount to net asset value of the Fund's Shares on the NYSE; and the burden of governance, shareholder meeting, and reporting requirements of the NYSE. Also considered was the extent to which the delisting would permit the Fund's Board and management to focus on seeking the Fund's primary investment objective of high current income with capital appreciation as a secondary objective. The Fund will continue to maintain its investment company registration and update its shareholders with financial and other information as required by applicable law.

About the Fund

The Fund is a closed end fund with the primary investment objective of seeking high current income. Capital appreciation is a secondary objective. The Fund seeks to achieve its objectives by investing, under normal circumstances, at least 50% of its total assets in income generating equity securities. From time to time, shares of the Fund may trade at a premium to NAV or a discount to NAV. During such periods when the Fund's NAV per share is above the market price, there may be an opportunity for investors to purchase shares of the Fund at a discount to their underlying value. The Fund's premium or discount to NAV may vary over time and shares of the Fund may subsequently be worth more or less than their original cost.

Shares of closed end funds frequently trade at a discount from their NAV. This characteristic is a risk separate and distinct from the risk that the Fund's NAV has decreased in the past, and therefore could decrease in the future, as a result of its investment activities. Neither the Investment Manager nor the Fund can predict whether shares of the Fund will trade at, below, or above NAV. The risk of holding shares of the Fund that might trade at a discount is more pronounced for investors expecting to sell their shares in a relatively short period of time after acquiring them because, for those investors, realization of a gain or loss on their investments is likely to be more dependent upon the existence of a premium or discount than upon portfolio performance. The shares of the Fund are designed primarily for long term investors and should not be considered a vehicle for trading purposes. The NAV of the Fund's shares typically will fluctuate with price changes of the Fund's portfolio securities, and these fluctuations are likely to be greater in the case of a fund which uses leverage, as the Fund may from time to time. In the event that shares of the Fund trade at a premium to NAV, there is no assurance that any such premium will be sustained for any period of time and will not decrease, or that the shares of the Fund will not trade at a discount to NAV thereafter. The market price for the Fund is based on supply and demand which fluctuates daily based on many factors, such as economic conditions and global events, investor sentiment, and security-specific factors.

There is no assurance that the Fund's investment objectives will be attained. Past performance is no guarantee of future results. You should consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of the Fund carefully before investing. The Fund's investment policies, management fees and other matters of interest to prospective investors may be found in its filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), including its annual and semi-annual reports.
